This is the story of an Indian joint family. The head of this joint family is Thakur Baldev Singh, while his sons Vishwanath, Atma and Shyam are like his three pillars. Besides this he has two daughters - one married to Raja Raghunath Singh and the other one married to Kishan Seth; who are both brothers. We follow their respective lives in detail through their marriages, birth of children and other events that happen in their life-time. After a fateful battle, Baldeo Singh had 4 sons. Shyam Singh is the eldest, followed by Atma and Vishwanath. Thakur Baldeo Singh tries to control his sons through a strict discipline of living up to the traditions of the family. But this does not succeed in bringing peace to them as all four brothers have different personalities and have their own aspirations for becoming successful in life. Thakur Baldeo Singh has no choice but to allow them all as they are the only blood relations he has as he lost his daughter many years ago. Shyam Singh is the first son to be married to an affluent girl Kalpana Seth. He receives Rs. 1 crores as dowry from her. He gets a good job as a Chief Engineer in an Industrial Plant and his wife Kalpana is very supportive as she shares his vision of purchasing a plot of land for their future residence, as Shyam loves to live in the farm house environment. But his salary doesn't suffice for them to live comfortably and they have to go through many financial hardships which only adds more tension in their marriage. Even though both are happy in their marriage, they suffer a lot due to lack of financial stability and uncertainty about the future, making them feel insecure. Atma Singh, the eldest son is the only one who shows no interest in being a farmer. He is a member of the Congress Party and his dream is to become a leader of his party. He knows the importance of having a good name in society and spends excessive money on buying arms which can be used against anyone who decides to cross him. This leads him into many financial problems that force him to lead a life without being able to have a wife or children. His wife gets pregnant but loses her unborn baby. Another son, Kishan Seth makes it big in politics through the help of Baldeo Singh. He gets married to Shanti Devi who is completely different from him. Kishan Seth is an educated man with modern thinking, while Shanti Devi is a religious, conservative lady who believes in following the family traditions at any cost. Although she constantly nags about his habits and wants to change him but recognizes his potential to rise in politics and tends to support him. Raghunath Singh, the son of Baldeo Singh's younger brother Kishan Lal lives separately in his own house with his wife Chandrawati. He loves her dearly and wants to spend the rest of his life with her but due to certain circumstances he decides to marry again.
