
Hi there! I'm Sebastian, a 16-year old boy from Germany. This is my blog about anything and everything that comes to mind. Hope you enjoy your stay. #What is it? This blog contains articles on any theme, ranging from informative to banal likes and dislikes, as well as reviews of various products, series or movies. It's updated regularly so please bookmark this page and come back soon! #What can you expect to find here? I write reviews of products and series with comparisons and contrasting opinions alongside personal ramblings on topics such as CD collecting or engineering jokes (yeah there's an occasional engineering joke in here). If you're here, though, because you're after something specific, scroll down to the bottom and click on "Today's Theme". #How do I write my review? I've got a section that explains exactly how to write your review. You just need to copy and paste that into your own blog and be done with it. It also contains a link to an article on how to make your review look better. The method is very simple: italicize, bold and indented (indentation is scary). They really make a difference! If there's anything else you want to know about writing reviews, ask me. I'll try to answer. #What's the best thing about this blog? The blog isn't just a bunch of reviews with a layout that looks as if it was made in about 30 minutes. It's got a lot of pictures and information. You can also leave comments here so I'd appreciate it if you'd be happy to leave me a message with your opinion on my products or series reviews. I do so love comments! Just click on the "Write comment" button at the bottom of each review! Feel free to follow the same pattern as everyone else and say something like: "Loved it!" or "You're an idiot!". #What's the worst thing? This blog is incomplete! You can help by adding to it. I'd also appreciate you writing me a comment if you find out that something isn't working properly. Your opinion is very much appreciated! I'm only 16 years old, remember. Just because I write about stuff doesn't mean I know everything about it. Oh, and another thing. This blog isn't just for me. Don't feel shy about writing in here! It's for everyone so enjoy yourself! #What are my top ten favourite series? These are in no particular order because...well... they're all amazing! The series is about a group of friends who meet by chance and decide to try and be the best band in the world by participating in various competitions. They come together to make their dream come true. It's got everything: good singing, good lyrics, good humor and even some action! The characters are funny and the story is just amazing. It's perfect for anyone who enjoys a bit of manga and anime mixed with some humor and time passes quickly when watching it! I just love it! If you feel that you wouldn't be able to relate or put yourself into this manga, then you're wrong. This manga is all about friendship and learning what your friends think of you...
